Methodology

Results of this survey are based on a self-administered online survey completed by 1,094 American adults from June 10-11, 2020.

Responses for this survey were collected from SurveyMonkey Audience's opt-in panel. Because respondents were selected by nonprobability sampling methods, no estimates of sampling error are provided.

More details about nonprobability sampling methods can be found here. Additional details on the data collection platform, SurveyMonkey Audience, can be found here.
